

Special Gifts

In this story a boy sends his father a skipping stone and a girl sends him her favorite shell.

These were special and thoughtful gifts.

When your dad or mom was deployed, did you send him or her something special too?

What was it? Describe or draw and explain your choice below.